

Shellseekers

Shellseekers

Shellseekers is a modern five bedroom detached house situated in the picturesque village of Saundersfoot in the Pembrokeshire National Park, with spectacular views over the beach, village and surrounding countryside.

The house is split-level, with the open-plan living accommodation upstairs to maximize the views and has a terraced rear garden with patio and barbeque, as well as parking for three cars to the front.

The property sleeps ten people - there being one double, one twin and shower room downstairs and one double ensuite with balcony, one double, one twin and a bath/shower room upstairs. There is also a cot & highchair available at no extra cost

Facilities include a full kitchen with a dishwasher & washer/drier - TV with freeview, DVD & video player & CD/radio with Ipod docking station in the living area. All bedrooms have TV/DVD combi, hairdryer and clock.

All linen, towels, tea towels & dishcloths are provided and there is no charge for electricity & gas.

PHONE JIM OR KASEY ON 07756 827 592 FOR PRICE AND AVAILABILITY.